

Kristine Lee Leiphart
Deputy Assistant Secretary for Regional Affairs

Kristine Lee Leiphart serves as the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Regional Affairs for the U.S. Economic Development Administration (EDA) within the U.S. Department of Commerce. She oversees the Office of Performance and National Programs and six regional offices with a staff of about 170 people.

Prior to working at EDA, Kristine served as the Deputy Chief Financial Officer and Deputy Associate Administrator for the Office of Budget and Policy overseeing a budget of $18.5 billion for the Federal Transit Administration (FTA) at the U.S. Department of Transportation. She was responsible for working with the Office of Management and Budget, the Government Accountability Office, and the Office of the Inspector General for FTA's implementation and compliance related to various Federal Acts and directives.

Her publications include articles on budget and performance integration, sustainable community planning, military logistics, safety, workforce planning, base realignment and closure, transit oriented developments, high speed rail, and housing.

Kristine has a doctorate degree from the School of Urban Planning and Public Affairs from the University of Illinois, and master's and bachelor's degrees in political science, urban studies and sociology from Northwestern University. She served as a lecturer for transportation safety and security classes at George Mason University. She has a degree designation as a global logistics specialist (GLS) and is certified in transportation logistics management.